ABOUT THE NEW INSTITUTE

On the basis of humanistic and scientific reflection on human being and becoming in the 21st century, THE NEW INSTITUTE develops concrete visions of future socio-economic and political realities. We gather thinkers and practitioners with interdisciplinary and intercultural backgrounds in academia, politics, business, media, the arts, and technology around concrete projects that effect positive social change.

WHO ARE WE LOOKING FOR?

Scholars from the humanities and social sciences with innovative, future-oriented research in one of the program areas and a topic that has the potential of leading to concrete results with social impact and of attracting fellows with relevant expertise to carry out the project.

WHAT DO PROGRAM CHAIRS DO?

Developing the project topic of the application into a call for fellows together with the Academic Directors, selecting fellows together with the Academic Directors, and working on individual projects.

HOW DO I APPLY?

Letter of motivation (3 pages max.); desired starting term; CV, including current address, nationality, gender; proof of career level; proposal for a project topic within the framework of the respective program, which may be turned into a call for fellows coming forward with concrete projects of their own in a next step (5 pages max.). More details on our Fellowship page. Please send as a single pdf to programs@thenew.institute.
