ABOUT THE NEW INSTITUTE

THE NEW INSTITUTE is a mission-driven Institute of Advanced Study and a platform for change. It was founded in response to the urgent ecological, economic and political challenges of our time. THE NEW INSTITUTE is located in Hamburg and will bring together a community of globally concerned thinkers and practitioners from academia, the arts, activism, media, business, and politics to develop powerful visions to fundamentally reshape society.

YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES

You will be closely collaborating with the Academic Director and interim Program Chair, Prof. Dr. Markus Gabriel in:

- Supporting the conceptual development of the program and the fellow work
- Identifying potential program chairs, fellows from academia as well as visitors and fellows from the field of politics, civil society, the business world, the arts
- Convening and coordinating the fellow group
- Facilitating communication with the fellows and the team
- Developing new methods of interdisciplinary and cross-sectoral cooperation
- Supporting the implementation of projects resulting from collaborative fellow work, e.g., organizing events (with the help of support staff), editorial and coordinative tasks
- Cross-cutting tasks in the Research and Fellow Management Team

OUR REQUIREMENTS

- A Ph.D. in philosophy, anthropology, sociology or a related field
- International research experience

- Fluency in German and English, both in writing and in speaking
- High level of motivation and commitment
- Interest in people, a positive attitude, well-developed communication skills
- High level of service-orientation and interest in performing coordinative and administrative tasks
- Ability to work independently

Previous work experience in project management in an academic, interdisciplinary setting is advantageous.

The position in Hamburg is full-time, initially limited to two years, with the option of becoming a permanent position.

Please email your application materials, consisting of a cover letter “Why THE NEW INSTITUTE?”, certificates, references, résumé, salary expectations, earliest possible start date, in a single PDF document to jobs@thenew.institute.
